

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council Public Library Service

DATA PROTECTION PRIVACY STATEMENT

June 2015

This statement relates to our privacy practices in connection with librariesireland.iii.com and associated library services and the Library Management System. Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of other websites. Any external links to other websites are clearly identifiable as such.

Security

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council takes its security responsibilities seriously, employing appropriate physical and technical measures including the use of a Staff Access Control system with audit controls and staff training and awareness. We have internal procedures and computer interfaced protective barriers to keep your information as safe and secure as we possibly can. We cannot, however, guarantee the privacy or confidentiality of any information, whether or not relating to you as the user, passing over the Internet via non-secured email.

Collection of Customer Personal Data

In order for to provide you with the Library Service and a Single Management Library System we collect and use the data relating to you as a library user. The only information that is collected by us is information which you chose to send us by email, information provided when opting to take out library membership online or information provided when logging on and using our online services. This data is used to manage and administer the library user's account and for operational reasons and includes:

- your name,
- your address
- Year of Birth
- Email Address
- Mobile number (optional service)

Any personal information provided will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, in accordance with the Data Protection Acts, 1988 and 2003.

We will only share your data with other Irish Local Authority Libraries for the purpose of providing shared library services and a Single Library Management System and with trusted third parties who provide support to us and to the Single Library Management System and process data on our behalf in accordance with appropriate data sharing confidentiality agreements.

We will only contact you in relation to your use of the service or if you have indicated that you wish to receive notifications about forthcoming library events and programme.

Right of access, rectification or erasure

If you would like a copy of the details we hold about you, please write to the Data Protection Officer, Corporate Services and Human Resources Department, Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council, Marine Road, Dún Laoghaire, Co. Dublin. Please enclose the correct fee (€6.35).

You also have the right to correct any errors in the information held about you, block certain uses or object to the processing of your personal data. Such an instruction must be in writing. A request will be dealt with as soon as possible and will not take more than 40 days to process.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we change our privacy policy, we will post the changes on this page, so you will be aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times. Continued use of the service will signify that you agree to any such changes.

Cookies

This website does not use cookies, apart from temporary session cookies which enable a visitor's web browser to remember which pages on this Website have already been visited. Cookies are pieces of text based information stored on a user's hard drive while they are visiting a particular website. It contains simple information about the user's identity but no personal information. When the user closes their browsers, the cookies are destroyed. You can set your computer not to accept cookies without a loss of functionality.